FOR JUSTICE OF THE PEACE,
First District—William N. Howe.

This is a "farmers' year." The orators who were so anxious last fall about the dear farmer ought now to be satisfied.

The greatest joke of the season is to see American "statesmen," so-called, solemnly packing up their grip-sacks and going to China and Japan for pointers in favor of a silver currency.

The Gold Democrats continue active and energetic. Their campaigns in Ohio, Iowa and Kentucky will be especially vigorous and it is clearly apparent that they will have many men in their ranks, who, last year, supported the Bryan ticket and platform.

It is now in order to charge MAX HANNA with the responsibility for the gold discoveries in Alaska. At least it would be about as reasonable as the assertions which were preached on every Popocratic stump last summer that HANNA was the cause of the advance in wheat.

REPORTS from the West show that there is the greatest difficulty in obtaining sufficient freight cars to remove the grain crops, which are not only large, but bring good prices. This is in marked contrast with the conditions of the past two years, thousands upon thousands of cars having been idle since the summer of 1903. And yet silver continues to go down.

Big show at Park tonight.
The Farmers Bank of Cynthiana will reduce its capital stock from $120,000 to $80,000.

A preacher in Davies county, Ind., was attempting to frighten some unruly boys, recently stolen a baby in his congregation last year.

According to the report of the Kentucky Commissioner of Agriculture the wheat crop shows an improvement of 300 percent over last year.

Michael Rice, 56, of Augusta, a farmer, died Saturday morning at St. Elizabeth's hospital. While the last sacrament was being given his daughter, Mrs. Victoria Schmidt of Augusta, was taken to the hospital suffering with a broken knee, and sustained while slipping from a train on her way to visit her father.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy always does prompt relief. For sale by J. Jas. Wood, Druggist.

The Paris Kentuckian Citizen has this to say of a Mayville mechanic: Mr. Edward Hill is here plastering on the new Methodist Church. He worked here forty years ago for Lawson Owens of Mayville, and has done 170 yards of white coat in 9 hours and 20 minutes. He is considered the finest workman on the Ohio river. His son Wm. J. Hill, is also here and is a very swift workman. He has a son, Eddie F. Hill, who laths and can put on 2,400 lath per day.

COLORADO MASONS.

Brief Sketch of the Republican Nominee for Circuit Judge.

AN ABLE AND JUST LAWYER.

He Was Abroad at Electric Park Saturday Night.

MANAGER FREMONT STABBED.

Saturday night at the Electric Park quite a serious difficulty took place, during which Manager William Fremont was stabbed in the lower hip by a cowardly assassin, whose name could not positively be learned, the particulars of which are briefly these:

Near 9 o'clock there had assembled at this popular resort the largest crowd of people yet gathered there, some estimating it at 1,200. It has been the intention of Mr. Fremont to maintain good order, and to give to all, especially ladies and children, that protection which would inure to their safety.

It was this last thought that prompted him to undertake a task wholly without his charge, but certainly within his manly duty.

One Huff Ginn was among the crowd, full of bad humor and of course very loud mouthed and noisy. Twice did Manager Fremont kindly ask him to desist and turned into the pavilion, hoping he would go away, but not so. His mouth grew wider and his voice more offensive, until ladies, being scared, fled. Then Mr. Fremont came out, determined to put Ginn off. No policemen were present to prevent the office. He was carrying out this act when two fellows ran up behind him, and making passes with a knife, cut some five gashes in his coat and trousers. Happily only one took effect, the blade entering the fleshy part of his lower hip, cutting to the bone and some three or four inches in length. The wounded man was carried to his home near by and Dr. Yeall summoned, who, together with Dr. O'Brien, dressed his wound, and the patient is getting along nicely.

A Mr. Givrin and a Mr. Burgle have been arrested as the parties who did the cutting. They gave bond and the trial will be heard at a later date.

A Remarkable Cure of Chronic Diarrhoea.

In 1862, when I served my country as a private in Company A, 16th Pennsylvania Volunteers I contracted chronic diarrhoea. It has given me a great deal of trouble ever since. I have tried a dozen different medicines and several prominent doctors without any permanent relief. Not long ago a friend sent me a sample bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and after that I bought a bottle and took it and now I can say that I am entirely cured. I cannot be thankful enough to you for this great Remedy. It has done me more good than any other medicine I have ever used. Yours gratefully, Henry Steinberger, Altoona, Pa. Sold by J. Jas. Wood, Druggist.

TWO BRIGHT STARS.

They Will Shine at Electric Park All This Week—Other Attractions.

The above is a good likeness of J. Fred Helf and Hal Yost, two very bright stars which Manager William H. Fremont has engaged to shine at Electric Park each evening this week. Mr. Helf is the composer of those touchingly beautiful songs which have become most popular over our country, "Two Sweethearts of Mine," "It Ain't No Lie" and "Bluegrass Belle."

He was for many years Manager and baritone singer for one of the famous Lyceum Quartets.

Mr. Yost was for two seasons past a prominent support to Milton and Dollie Noble. These gentlemen co-jointly do a refined skit, entitled "Nothing But Money," and are well known lights among high class vaudeville artists in the South and East.

The patrons of the Park Theater are in great glee over the advent of this pair, and with the attractive features, such as Secker and Wilkes and Felice, together with the inimitable Johnson, a program of rich jokes, catchy, sweet singing, high class dancing and a screamingly absurd farce to wind up an evening of pleasure, such as does not often take place outside of large cities, all for the ridiculously low price of 10 cents.

The inquiries argue a large crowd for tonight. Go out.

THE INJUNCTION

Of Judge Jackson Criticised by New York Papers.

Tribune Says It is Calculated to Make All Law Hateful.

The Evening Post Thinks That the Miners are Hardly Getting Fair Treatment—The Miners Believe It Will Put an End to the Strike.

New York, Aug. 9.—Coal mine owners here are of the belief that the strike agitation in West Virginia has been effectually stopped by Judge John Jay Jackson's blanket injunction against the agitators, which will remain in force until September 30, when arguments will be had by both sides. It is thought the strike will be over by that time.

By the injunction Debs and his associates are enjoined from speaking on the subject of strikes in and about the Monongahela mines. They are not permitted to interview miners on the way to and from work; they cannot speak on any of the public highways leading to the mines of the petitioners; lastly, they are ordered to hold no public or private meetings whatsoever in the neighborhood of the mines in question.

Three injunctions, almost as sweeping, have been granted in the Pittsburgh district, but it is said here that they are not being enforced.

ASSASSINATED.

Prime Minister Canovas Del Castillo, of Spain, Dead.

The Assassin, Who Gave His Name as Rinaldi, Immediately Arrested.

Canovas Was Fired at Three Times. One Shot Taking Effect in the Forehead. Another in the Chest—Prime Minister's Last Words: "Long Live Spain."

MADRID, Aug. 9.—Senor Canovas del Castillo, prime minister of Spain, was assassinated Sunday at Santa Agueda by an anarchist. The murderer fired three shots, one of which struck the forehead and another in the chest. The wounded man fell dying at the foot of his wife, who was with him, lingering in agony for two hours and then passing away with the cry of "Long live Spain," which were the last words upon his lips.

Senor Canovas was born in the town of Sagunto, in the province of Valencia, about thirty miles south of Bilbao. The premier went there last Thursday to take a three-day course of the baths, after which he intended to return to Santa Sebastian to meet United States Minister Woodford when that gentleman should be officially received by the queen regent.

ANTONIO CANOVAS DEL CASTILLO.

The assassin was immediately arrested. He is a Neapolitan, and it is believed that this is an assumed name, and that his real name is Michele Angino Gotti. At a special meeting of the cabinet Sunday, under the presidency of Senor Canovas, minister of the interior, the latter announced that he had been entrusted by the queen regent with the premiership after the murder.

"The murderer declares that he killed Senor Canovas 'in accordance with a just vengeance' and that the deed is the outcome of a vast anarchist conspiracy. He is believed to have arrived at Santa Agueda the same day as the premier, and he was frequently seen lurking in the passages of the bathing establishment in a suspicious manner."

The remains of Senor Canovas will be brought here Monday. Marshal Martinez Campos has gone to Santa Sebastian to attend the queen regent. Senor Sagasta, the liberal leader, has sent the following telegram to the government:

"I have heard with deep pain of the crime that has thrown us all into mourning, and I place myself at the orders of the government and of the queen."

Most of the liberal leaders have sent similar messages, placing themselves at the disposal of the government.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—This government probably has already received the formal notification of the assassination of Canovas, but if so it is looked up with other dispatches in the state department and will not be known until Secretary Sherman reaches the department Monday morning. Immediately the state department, according to usual custom, will issue a formal statement to the president and the latter will in some way make formal and public expression regarding the government's deep regret of the assassination. This expression will be couched in no known, for precedents differ, but it will be necessary to change the sentiment of the whole country.

Spain is a very tense country. Her money is scarce, her resources have been exhausted. But she means, evidently, to hold Cuba. Just how she can do it, under these circumstances, I can not say.

It is not possible that the government will be able to replace in that important office, having suffered the loss of the premier, and the same person. How it may be in this case I am not able to say, but the effects, politically, of such an event are not to be underestimated. It has and have not always produced radical development. As to the consequences of the conflict in Cuba, I can not say. I have no official information of the assassination and must refrain from venturing guesses as to what it may effect.

Asked as to how long he now thought the Cuban insurrection might last, he replied that that was problematical, but he did not care to discuss it. He added that he had heard various names of prominent leaders in Spain mentioned, but he was not sure of them, and there was nothing on which he could base a prediction as to Canovas' probable successor.

SEAL QUESTION.

Ex-Secretary of State John W. Foster Confirms

The Report That the Whole Matter Will Be Re-Opened

At the Conference to be Held in Washington in October—Canovas and Russia Will Be Reported—The Question Will Be Settled Satisfactorily.

New York, Aug. 9.—The Press Monday publishes the following: John W. Foster, ex-secretary of state, having reported to Secretary Sherman in Washington, on Saturday, the result of his work around the water on the seal question, returned to this city Sunday on his way to Lake Champlain to see President McKinley. A report for the Press from Mr. Foster in the Fifth Avenue hotel, but he was scarcely more communicative than he was on his return from Europe. However, he confirmed the report that the whole question is to be reopened at the conference to be held in Washington in October.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the Canadian premier, is expected here, Mr. Foster said, but his presence depends more on the condition of affairs in Canada. It is likely that Laurier will be present in his capacity as private counselor, and that the argument for Canada will be made principally by George E. King, one of the justices of the supreme court of Canada.

Russia will be represented, Mr. Foster said, but he had heard no gossip as to the chance for the duty. Mr. Foster himself will have much to do with the presentation of the case from the view point of the conference. It is not probable that ex-President Harrison will make the argument for the United States. He is familiar with every step of the negotiations and it was his administration that the controversy reached the crucial stage.

Mr. Foster said it would be improper for him to say whether his report contained recommendations or only statements of facts.

There is no reason to believe, however, that Mr. Foster thinks the whole controversy will be settled satisfactorily as the result of the conference in Washington in October. He left the city Saturday.

COL. AGUIRA

Thinks the Assassination of Canovas Will Result in the Establishment of the Republic of Spain.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—Col. A. Aguirre, who is stopping in Washington, said Sunday night:

"The assassination of Canovas will result in the de facto establishment of the Spanish monarchy and the freedom of Cuba. The people of Spain are ripe for revolution, being discontented over the high taxation, which grinds them down to poverty, and in some cases to starvation. This is the beginning of the revolutionary movement, and is connected with the recent attempt on the life of the queen."

"There is great dissatisfaction over the result of the war in Cuba and to remove Canovas was the object of well-aimed shots. He was the support of the Spanish monarchy, and his removal will be succeeded by Sagasta, his political rival and leader of the liberal party. Sagasta will certainly take a violent step to conciliate the Cubans by granting them reforms but it will be too late. I expect to see Cuba free within six days, and the republic of Spain established soon afterwards."
